Fame Beckons Youngster

THIS LITTLE FELLOW'S feet are already firmly planted on the road to musical fame at the age of seven years. Terrence Wisninski made a clean sweep of honors in two Alberta musical festivals this spring. He wants to be a "great musician."

CITY YOUNGSTER GAINING FAME

Cowboys and Injuns? No, He Likes the Violin

At an age when most little boys are chiefly interested in ice cream and "Injuns," seven-year-old Terrence Wisninski is becoming famous as a violinist.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Wisninski, 12022 82 Street, Terry started playing the violin when he was five.

His uncle bought him the violin after Terry himself expressed the desire to play the instrument.

Shortly after, Terry's uncle, H. J. Eldon, a teacher of the violin, took over training of the near-instant.

HAD OWN ORCHESTRA
At five and one-half years of age the amazing Terry was conducting an orchestra of young children, becoming the youngest conductor in the history of Alberta.

Terrence came first in both the Alberta and Edmonton annual musical festivals this year for youngsters under nine years of age.

This summer he is taking his second grade of the Toronto Conservatory of Music. Last year he passed his first grade examinations with honors.

Teacher uncle Skidnow says of Terry:

"I have never seen anything like the child before. He is simply amazing."

Young Terry himself quietly states:

DIFFERENTIAL RATE REMOVAL IS HINTED

VANCOUVER, May 20.—(CP)—The "mountain differential," an additional rate on railway freight which the British Columbia and Alberta governments long have opposed, may be removed.

Agriculture Minister Gardiner forecast the removal last night in a Vancouver Centre federal by-election campaign address.

"If it is going to be removed, it will be by a Liberal government," he said, "it will even go so far as to say it will be removed by the present Liberal government."

Speaking in support of Liberal candidate R. O. Campney, the federal minister declared all discrimination and inequality in freight rates should be removed.

"Instead of three freight-rate structures, we should have one . . . that deals with all parts alike."

Drill-Pipe Production At Atlantic Well Soon

Production may start Friday through the drill pipe in the wild Atlantic No. 3 oil well at Leduc.

New plans to pump water into the super-porous structure below the runaway well, will not mature before another five or six days.

Dr. George W. Govier, Edmonton, member of the Alberta Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board, today described new methods to be tried for bringing the wild well under control.

FLOW LINES CONNECTED
"Flow lines have been connected to the Atlantic No. 3 and an attempt will likely be made Friday to produce through the drill pipe of the wild well," Dr. Govier said.

Originally experts had planned to pull the drill pipe out and produce from the well casing.

It may be that production from the drill pipe will in itself stop the dangerous cratering.

In the meantime, pressure pumps and other equipment are being moved to the field for the attempt to control the well by flooding the porous structures with water.

Gives Broad Review
Of British Policy

By HOMER JENKS
SCARBOROUGH, England, May 20.—(BUP)—British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said today that the greatest danger of Russia's present war of nerves.

He stated flatly however that he was against "any step to carry on aggressive war against Soviet Russia or any other country."

Making a broad review of British foreign policy before the 7th annual Labor party conference, Bevin also said:

1.—Britain was facing the necessity of asking the United States for another loan when secretary of state George C. Marshall came to his rescue with the European Recovery Program.

2.—Britain is not prepared to sit idly by and see the Communists seize power in Western Europe.

3.—Western European Union defense talks are not directed against anyone in particular but are designed to give the government the means of life or death for their people in event of attack and enable them to negotiate with others in the proper manner.

4.—The council of foreign ministers.

Fine Weather To Continue

Edmonton's spell of fine weather will continue with the end not yet in sight.

The heat wave which scorched Southern Saskatchewan today moved to Manitoba Wednesday, cooking the mercury to 95 in Winnipeg.

Dull weather hopes to Southern Alberta and will persist until afternoon, today, but other than that, the fine weather is expected.

Spring Is Here: Nightingale Sings

LONDON, May 20.—(CP)—Spring really is here.

The BBC interrupted a musical program last night to broadcast a nightingale singing in the Kentish woods.

He has been living in a tourist cabin here for a month, confined in bed by his broken hip.

The newspaper said that except for the injury Dalton was in good condition physically and had the mental alertness of a man of 65. It said he stood about five feet 11 inches tall and must have been a powerful man in his youth.

Stocks Get Great
'Play' on Eastern
Canadian Markets

By JACK DeLONG
Edmonton is experiencing the city's first oil boom since discovery of the rich Leduc field.

Albera oils are having one of the greatest "plays" in history on the Toronto and Montreal stock exchanges following sensational price jumps in the last three weeks.

All this is a brand new experience for Edmontonians.

In former years Calgary was the beating heart of the oil trade.

SHOW GREAT GAINS
Although the bulk of the big trading is being done by large eastern American and Canadian investors, Western buyers are practically all residents of Edmonton and district.

Wise investors have been cashing in to the tune of thousands of dollars in recent weeks.

Indian Under Arrest For Attempted Murder

A 36-hour manhunt in the woods near Saddle Lake ended Wednesday afternoon with the capture of a 23-year-old treaty Indian on a charge of attempted murder.

Norman Jackson, sought by RCMP since early Monday morning, was finally captured with the aid of a specially-trained police dog in heavy bush near St. Paul.

He has been charged with attempting murder following a family quarrel in the home of his father-in-law, Louis Cardinal, about 11:30 a.m. Monday.

According to police, Jackson shot and seriously wounded 24-year-old Richard Cardinal after the latter attempted to interrupt an argument between Jackson and his wife.

Cardinal is alleged to have loaded a .38 Smith & Wesson pistol in a room, pointed the weapon at his wife and threatened her.

When Cardinal walked between the pair, the 22 rifle was discharged, sending a bullet through Cardinal's right shoulder, coming out through his neck.

BACKTRACKED TRAIL
Jackson was caught after he had evaded police three times by backtracking.

Preliminary hearing on the attempted murder was held Friday at St. Paul, about 90 miles northeast of Edmonton.

Letter Mail GOES BY AIR AFTER JULY 1

OTTAWA, May 20.—(CP)—Postmaster-General Bertrand announced today in the Commons that after July 1 all letter mail will be carried by air mail, whether it be regular or air mail.

This will apply to letters weighing one ounce or less. It means that letters carrying a four-cent stamp for surface mail will be carried by air mail to any pair of Canada served by Trans-Canada Airlines.

The new service will be on an experimental basis until it is determined that it is financially sound.

Radioactive Ore Found In North Ontario Area

ONTARIO, May 20.—(CP)—Radioactive ore has been discovered 90 miles north of Cochrane in the bleak James Bay basin.

Ontario Mines Minister Frost, announced the find last night, calling the new lode—mining men say it may contain uranium—"The most promising discovery ever made in Ontario."

Dr. H. C. Rickaby, deputy mines minister, said a thorough examination of the deposits in a dried-up river bed in the township near the Ontario Northland railway station of Coral Rapids will be made at once by engineers. He said previous examination "gave the appearance of a quantity of radioactive minerals."

EXTENT UNKNOWN
It was too early to estimate the extent of the "field and the exact nature of the deposits. Many surveys had been carried out in the

Canadian Ace Was On Way to Israel

ROME, May 20.—(CP)—A Canadian flier identified by Jewish refugee circles as George (Buzz) Beurling of Montreal, Canada's No. 1 fighter ace of the Second World War, was killed today in a plane crash at Urbe airfield.

The plane, one of three en route to aid the Jewish cause in Palestine, crashed and burned during a trial flight around the airfield.

Rome police confirmed that the name of the dead pilot was George Beurling. The 26-year-old Montreal ace completed a record of 31 enemy planes shot down in the Second World War while fighting with the RAF and the RCAF.

Also killed in the flaming crash of the light two-engine plane was a British test pilot.

ON WAY EAST
Beurling, who flashed to fame through hostile warplane skies and who asked little of life but action and adventure, was known to have been on his way to the Middle East to take part in the present fighting between Jews and Arabs for control of Palestine.

In Montreal, Beurling's father expressed belief that there was little doubt that his son had died. "My son told me some time ago that he was heading that way (to Palestine)," said Fred Beurling.

(In a recent interview, published by a Canadian magazine (MacLean's), Beurling was quoted as saying that he had been approached by unidentified persons to fly as a combat fighter pilot in the Middle East. He was purported to have said:

"I would be glad to get back into combat. It's the only thing I ever did well. It's the only thing I ever did I really liked."

The other man killed in the crash was Leonard J. Cohen, who carried a British passport and flying licence.

The plane, a Norseman type built in Canada as a light transport, had a United States registry number. It arrived at Urbe field from the United States two days ago with two other planes being ferried to Palestine for use as ambulance aircraft.

OTHERS LAND SAFELY
The two other planes with which the Norseman flew from Britain landed safely and took off after refuelling.

The Norseman, used extensively during the war by the British, Canadian and United States air forces, is a single-engine five-passenger monoplane, widely used by Canadian bush pilots.

The plane in which the two men crashed was one of three held at the airport because Italian officials found their papers were not in order. Later, they received clearance to Brindisi, Italy's jumping-off spot for Greece and Palestine.

Beurling and Cohen were on a flight when the plane plunged to the ground and burst into flames at the edge of the field.

TORONTO, May 20.—(CP)—George (Buzz) Beurling, Canada's ace fighter pilot of the Second World War, killed today in a plane crash at Rome, signed several weeks ago with a private Jewish group for service in Palestine, it was learned.

A source to whom Beurling outlined his plans last March 29—Easter Monday—quoted Beurling as saying he would receive $10,000 a month.

This source said Beurling also was approached by Arabs seeking to enlist pilots for the Palestine war.

Training Course
OTTAWA, May 20.—(CP)—The second of a series of six-week training courses for officers of the penitentiaries began here this week, it was announced yesterday.

Discovery of the mineralized section, said to be five feet wide and 300 feet long, was termed last night one of the best kept secrets of modern Ontario mining history. The site was said to fall but remained secret until late yesterday.

'IRON-CLAD EVIDENCE' CLAIMED

Jesse James Reported Alive in U.S.

LAWTON, Oklahoma, May 20.—(BUP)—The Lawton Constitution reported today that it had found Jesse James alive, 100 years old and bedfast with a broken hip.

Frank Hall, the paper's city editor, said it had "iron-clad evidence" that a man listed on government pension rolls as J. Frank Dalton actually was the old Missouri bandit.

COMPLETELY REFORMED MAN
The Constitution carried a five-column story by reporter Lindsey written about Dalton—or James—on its front page. It quoted Dalton as saying he was a "completely reformed man."

"Crime doesn't pay," he said. "I'm the perfect example. I live in remorse because of some of the things I did years ago."

He said the official story that Bob Ford shot him down in his home in St. Joseph, Mo., in 1882, was a hoax.

Officials of the newspaper became convinced of Dalton's identity after checking his story. They said his physical appearance matches James' and that he has scars similar to those borne by James.

Dalton said the story about Ford killing him was trumped up so he could lose his identity. His brother, Frank, and their mother identified his body after it was really the corpse of one Charles Bigelow.

The "Constitution" story said "Jesse sang at his own funeral, sounding off with his handsome baritone voice, which even today is something to feel proud of."

James, according to records, was born September 5, 1847.

James also fought with Quantrell's irregulars.

Lately, Dalton has been living at Centreville, Tex., with Lee Howk, who claims to be a grandson of a James henchman named Baxley.

"HEADS UP THE TRAIL"
Last winter Dalton broke his hip and was admitted to a veterans' hospital near Austin, Tex. He left the hospital a month ago, with Howk's help, "head up the trail" of his outlaw exploits for one last here.

He has been living in a tourist cabin here for a month, confined in bed by his broken hip.

The newspaper said that except for the injury Dalton was in good condition physically and had the mental alertness of a man of 65. It said he stood about five feet 11 inches tall and must have been a powerful man in his youth.

RCAF Once Rejected Ace

MONTREAL, May 20.—(BUP)—George "Buzz" Beurling, killed in a crash in Italy today, became Canada's top fighter ace of the war. Yet he was turned down by the RCAF early in the war because he had not finished his high school education.

After this rebuff, he tried to enlist in the Finnish and Chinese air forces, but was again turned down. Finally, he worked his way to England and was accepted by the RAF.

But first he had to present certain papers which were at his home here and he made the long journey home again.

ACCEPTED BY RAF
In August 1940 he returned to Britain and was accepted by the RAF. He was then sent to Malta, then undergoing heavy pounding by the Luftwaffe.

It was on the tiny Mediterranean island that he became one of the fighter aces of World War II, at the age of 20.

An extract from his log book tells the story of his exploits over Malta. On July 13, 1942—Scramble—two Macchi 202s destroyed.

July 10—Scramble—one 109 destroyed, 1 Macchi 202 destroyed.

July 12—Scramble—three Macchi 202s destroyed.

July 13—Scramble—two Macchi 202s destroyed—two 109s destroyed.

October 14—Scramble—one 109 destroyed, self was shot down and baled out.

Beurling was wounded in the heel when shot down and was returned to England.

He transferred to the RCAF on recovery and after a brief tour of duty in Great Britain was returned to Canada.

31 ENEMY PLANES
Beurling shot down a total of 31 enemy planes in his span of active service.

His outstanding exploits he was awarded the Distinguished Service Order, the Distinguished Flying Cross, and the Distinguished Flying Medal and Bar.

Beurling was popularly nicknamed "The Kiwi" by fellow airmen in wartime, because it was one of his favorite expressions.

Kingston Escapee
May Be Returned
OAKLAND, Cal., May 20.—(BUP)—Police here said today they were willing to turn Nicholas Minelli, 30-year-old, who was arrested last night on a charge of burglary, over to Canadian authorities upon request.

Minelli, who broke out of the penitentiary with Donald "Mickey" McDonald and Ulysses Lauzon, both long-time prisoners, was arrested here on Tuesday and is being held for burglary investigation.

Aid Conditions To Be Submitted

Finance Committee Outlines Community League Help

Grants by the city to community leagues to aid in construction of recreational centres will be subject to eight conditions if a recommendation of the finance committee is accepted by the council.

Aldermen recommended a grant of 20 per cent of the costs of any community building to a maximum of $5,000.

The committee also recognized the need for a Recreation Commission - controlled civic playground at 97 street and 120 avenue. A recreation building on this site would cost approximately $10,000.

Aldermen instructed the city commissioners to report direct to council recommending this expenditure.

RECOMMEND LEASE

Committee members also recommended that council give the Glenora Skating and Tennis Club Ltd. a lease of eight lots on 120 street north of Jasper as a site for extension of its facilities.

The recommendation was that the Glenora Club could purchase the property from the city at 50 per cent of the assessed value of the eight lots.

Conditions governing building grants to community leagues are:

(1) The council does not admit or recognize any obligation to contribute toward the cost of any specific community building or centre but will deal with any application made upon its own merits and specifically.

(2) The council will not contribute toward the cost of any community building or centre not erected upon land leased from the city.

(3) With every application for a grant there shall be submitted plans and specifications and a satisfactory estimate of the overall costs of a completed building; and satisfactory assurances that the contribution asked for is granted by council will insure the completion of the building.

(4) The council will in no case contribute more than 20 per cent of the total cost of the building, or any amount greater than $5,000.

(5) The council will not contribute to a building in any community if in its opinion the reasonable needs of the community are being, or likely to be, adequately served by another building, such as a school, in the community.

(6) Before any grant is made the community league must be prepared to enter into an agreement with the Recreation Commission or other agency of the council for reasonable use of the building by the said commission or other council agency.

CITY LAUNCHES AERIAL WAR ON SKEETERS

Aerial attack on mosquitoes is contemplated by the City of Edmonton.

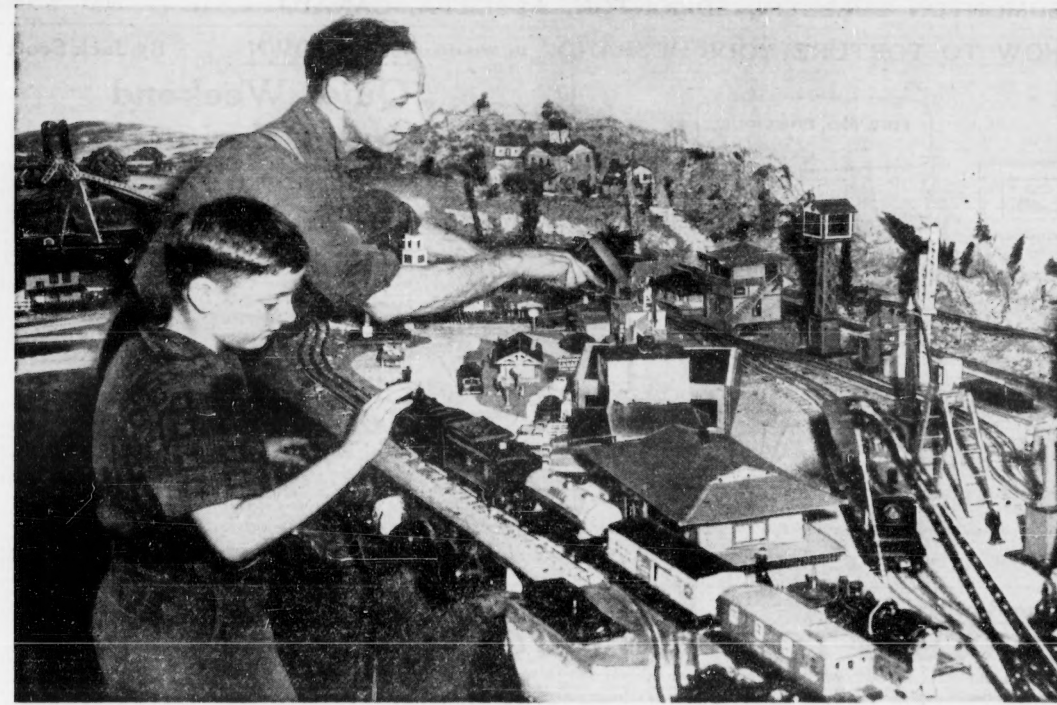

City Commissioner D. B. Menzies stated Wednesday that negotiations are proceeding with Westland Spraying Service for the spraying of the municipal golf course with DDT and mosquito oil.

If other golf courses inside the city limits are prepared to assume the cost of spraying their property, the city will undertake to spray areas surrounding the courses to combat the nuisance, Commissioner Menzies stated.

It is expected that negotiations with the spraying company will be completed during the week-end.

(7) The council must be satisfied concerning the nature of the activities to be carried on and that there is reasonable assurance that the community is behind the enterprise and will carry on the program continuously.

(8) Whenever the city contributes toward a community building or centre, the League shall enter into an agreement with the city which shall provide: (a) Full and continuous insurance coverage; (b) That all insurance policies shall be carried in the name of the city in trust for the community; (c) That in event of any loss or damage by fire the insurance money shall be applied in repair or reconstruction; (d) That if the Community League ceases adequately or reasonably to carry on a beneficial program of activities the city shall have full authority to take over the building and transfer the management and conduct thereof to some other agency for the furtherance of community activities.

AN ORPHAN'S DREAM resulted in the construction of this electric train layout thirty-five years later. Ray Richards, 43, Vancouver, dreamed of having an electric train as a child, but never got one. Two years ago he suffered a 60-foot fall as a high-rigger in a lumber camp and became partially paralyzed. To fill in time he began construction of the layout which now has 225 feet of track and hundreds of cars, buildings and accessories. Son Raymond, 9, gets a big kick out of it too.

MANY AIRCRAFT ON VIEW FOR AIR FORCE DAY

A flying display by RCAF personnel in Edmonton will highlight the second annual "Air Force Day" in Canada on June 12, North West Air Command headquarters announced today.

Facilities of the Edmonton station, as well as all other across Canada, will be open for public inspection.

A variety of aircraft will be seen in operation that day.

They will include speedy Meteor and Vampire "jets," four engine Lincolns and others.

It is hoped that the RCAF helicopter, brought here for rescue work recently, will be on display.

Edmonton Zoo Draws Protest

Edmonton Humane Society has protested to city council the conditions under which animals live at the Edmonton zoo.

The letter, addressed to city officials, urges provision of new quarters for animals, especially bears and coyotes.

If the new quarters cannot be provided, the letter suggests, the animals should be taken to Jasper National Park and released or be disposed of in a humane fashion.

Monthly reports of the society's inspectors revealed inspection of 504 railway cars, 208 trucks, 19 trailers, 1 wagon, 30,323 hogs, 3,611 cattle, 821 calves, 3,454 sheep and 700 horses.

Two cases of overcrowding were found two cases of no bedding, 18 warnings were given, three summonses issued and four convictions obtained.

Forty-three animals were found crippled on arrival at their destinations.

Three dogs, one sick, were returned to their owners, 10 horses were found in a neglected state and two were found abandoned.

Chamber of Commerce Tax Brief Given High Praise

High praise for an Edmonton Chamber of Commerce brief respecting a new income tax bill was voiced by Dominion government officials in Ottawa, according to G. W. Auxier.

Mr. Auxier, chairman of the Chamber Taxation committee returned from Ottawa where he conferred with Finance Minister Abbott and other officials of the finance, national revenue and justice departments respecting various sections of the new bill.

The bill, number 454, is shortly to be brought before the House of Commons, and when adopted will supersede existing income tax legislation.

Judging from the reaction of the officials, Mr. Auxier said, the proposals of the Edmonton Chamber met with varied success.

For instance, he said, it is not likely that the government will allow expenses to be charged against salary for income tax purposes. Officials consider that difficulties of administration make this impossible, and further that graduation in tax rates takes care of the problem.

Respecting double taxation on corporation profit, he said the impression left by the officials was to the effect that nothing would be done until there was closer harmony on corporation taxation between Dominion and Provincial governments.

It appeared likely, according to

Mr. Auxier, that existing methods of inventory evaluation would be permitted to stand.

The Chamber was opposed to the proposal of the new bill which confined the taxpayer to cost or market value when defining inventory.

CHANGE UNLIKELY

Despite arguments advanced, it is doubtful if there will be any change from the present husband and wife business relationship permitted for income tax purposes. Officials were of the opinion, Mr. Auxier said, that any change would provide too much opportunity for tax evasion and would make administration too big a problem.

As a result of representations of the Chamber and other organizations, Mr. Auxier said, a survey is being made of methods for the equalization of profit and loss over a number of years. Decision of the department is not yet set on this issue.

If approved by parliament, the new bill will probably come into effect at the beginning of the next income tax year, January 1, 1949.

New Agriculture Minister Attends Cabinet Meeting

Hon. David Ure, Alberta's new minister of agriculture, attended his first session of the provincial cabinet on Wednesday.

Mr. Ure, who was appointed to his portfolio during the cabinet reshuffle which followed the death of Hon. W. A. Fallow this month moved into his office in the legislative buildings on Monday, after spending a week at his Red Deer home on private business.

PLEADED GUILTY BUT NOT THERE

Something "screwy" here. Wednesday Robert J. Corke pleaded guilty to robbing a store in Barrehead of $950.

In city court today he asked to withdraw his plea.

Then Crown Prosecutor Donald Mason told court evidence had been found that on the date the store was robbed the accused was nowhere near Barrehead.

"I don't know his purpose of pleading guilty to the charge yesterday," said Mr. Mason.

The charge was withdrawn. Corke was recently sentenced to three years for robbing a store at Musidora.

The production of cheese was the earliest form of dairy manufacturing.

30,000 MILES AFoot: NUTHIN'

CAMBRIDGE, England, May 20.—(CP)—A verdict of accidental death was returned by a coroner's jury yesterday at an inquest held into the death of Howard Webster Macdonald of Calgary. Macdonald was killed in a highway accident 13 miles west of Cochrane, Alta., last April 14.

Accidental Death Verdict Returned

He said he lives within 600 yards of the station but has to walk 1 1/2 miles each way because there is no direct road. The ministry said it could not promise a new entrance.

Bishop Arrested

BELGRADE, May 20.—(AP)—A government spokesman said yesterday that Yugoslav authorities recently arrested Mgr. Petar Chulic, Roman Catholic Bishop of Mostar, because he committed criminal acts against the people and the state. Specific charges were not announced.

The best Beans you've ever tasted!

There's a special reason why no other beans are quite as delicious as Libby's Deep-Browned Beans. Libby's have perfected and patented a new cooking method which cooks every bean at exactly the right temperature. It deep-browns them clear through to the centre — imparts to each plump, tender bean its full share of rich, savoury tomato sauce. For a hot lunch, for a quick supper, you can't beat Libby's Deep-Browned Beans. Just heat and serve.

That Option System Again

One of the more controversial topics when local sportsmen gather to shoot the breeze is the option system. . . the method followed by the Exhibition Association of disposing of tickets for Flyer games.

'The greatest system ever dreamed up,' its advocates shout. Generally the boosters belong to that more or less select group of fans who haven't—except as it pleased them or because of circumstances beyond their control—missed a game in the last three seasons.

On the other side of the sandwich board it says in print just as imposing: 'The option system is undemocratic. Besides, by this time, the Exhibition Association doesn't even know where, or by whom, many of the options are held. What's more they don't care so long as the rink is filled.'

This cry comes from thousands who have failed to get in the act. Some missed the boat three years ago when the options went on sale. Many more have come to the city to live since that time. Others were still overseas. Fans from country towns were short changed.

But whatever the reason there they are . . . on the outside.

System Has Paid Dividends

The last time we heard this matter discussed in the presence of a representative group of Exhibition Association officials one of their number finally got off with: 'Hockey is a business. If we can fill the rink using the option system we would be foolish not to continue its use. At least those were substantially his words.

There can be no denying that the use of options has been 'good business.' Neither can anyone suggest that the Exhibition group should try to do otherwise than make their puck promotion pay real dividends.

This is only good sense. However there's one thing they might well spend some time at between now and when the Western Canada Hockey League opens in the autumn. This amounts to a thorough house-cleaning where the option list is concerned.

They may discover (surprise) that options are held in the names of persons who no longer reside in the city. They may also uncover the fact that individuals hold several options (more surprise). It might be ascertained that options have been traded off, as business is done on the stock exchanges. Other irregularities may show up.

★ ★ ★ ★

What Makes It Tick By Now?

Purpose, of course, would be to once again place in the hands of the Exhibition Association 100 per cent control of their box office.

In the process of reclaiming certain options it might be that 1,000-1,500 seats would be made available for general sale next season, a situation probably as much desired by the Association as by ticket-starved fans.

There's talk of an addition to the Arena as a means of adding seats and taking some of the pressure off the ticket dispensers. This would be all to the good.

But as well let the Association take that option list apart to see what makes it tick after three years.

If those so called pledges made in the beginning to option buyers must be honored in perpetuity all well and good. However it's also time the thousands on the outside (an estimated 60,000 watched the parade for the Flyers) were given some thought.

Wider Lending Facilities Needed

CALGARY, May 20.—(CP)—R. G. Johnson, of Ottawa, general manager of the Canadian Construction Association, last night called for establishment of a Dominion-provincial $500,000,000 fund for defensible public construction projects.

In an address before the Calgary Builders' Exchange, Mr. Johnson urged postponement of all but "urgently needed" public projects. However, it was essential that deferred projects be adequately planned now as a stabilizing influence against a "recessionary trend."

Mr. Johnson criticized "continued postponement of co-ordinated housing action by the three levels of government." This delayed the thousands to "Canada's most serious social problem."

He suggested more liberal lending facilities under the National Housing Act to speed building of new homes. Maximum reliance on home building should be placed on free enterprise and individual initiative.

The 93 per cent increase in construction costs since 1939 has not been as great as the increase from 1913 to 1939 when it was 108 per cent. He predicted construction costs will remain above the 1939 level.

Mountfield Eyes Return to Amateur

Ex-Western Champ Thinks Golf Great Sport for Youngsters

By Bert Greer

Attention parents!

If little Donald, or Ruth appear slightly anaemic, short-tempered, or inclined to show poor sportsmanship, buy them a set of golf clubs and turn them loose in the fresh air on the golf course.

That's the prescription offered for those "ailments" by one of the city's greatest golfers—Jim "Jam" Mountfield, who expects to be re-instated to amateur ranks in a few weeks.

Says Mountfield: "There's no game in the world to compare with golf in the development of a youngster's physique, or character—and don't ever let anyone tell you it's an old man's game."

Jim has noticed a great advancement in the sport in the last couple of decades. He said in 1923 one could barely name six outstanding players in the province, but now there's possibly more than 20.

EX-WESTERN CHAMP

Mountfield, a former Western Canada amateur champion and a member of four Willingdon Cup teams, has applied for re-instatement and has been assured by the upper circle in the RCGA that it will not be long forthcoming.

He hasn't played much golf in the last seven years, but Mountfield is still conservatively young and will probably be hitting his old-time form in a few months. He will be a fine addition to Edmonton's already strong field of amateur divot-diggers.

It was away back in 1923 that Mountfield "came to life" in a golf tournament. He reached the final of the city amateur and lost on the 36th hole to Harry Shaw. Both were 16 years-of-age at the time.

Lady Luck bowed to Jim the following year to balance things up and he was the victor in another final that went to the 36th hole. Harvey Day was the victim that time.

SISTER ALSO CHAMP

In 1928 he won the Western Canada amateur championship, and by strange coincidence his sister, May, won the ladies' western crown the same year. Jim defeated Jack Cuthbert, now manager-pro of the Calgary Golf and Country Club, in the final.

Also in 1928 he reached the semi-finals of the Canadian amateur.

YANK WALKER CUPPER EQUALS ENGLISH RECORD

SUNNINGDALE, England, May 20.—(AP)—Dick Chapman, American Walker Cup golfer and an entrant in the British amateur championship next week, shot a record-equaling 65 on the 6,477-yard Sunningdale course to win the "Golf Illustrated" golf vase Wednesday.

Bracketed in second place were Charlie Stowe, British Walker Cupper, Bob Sweeney of New York, and Harry Bentley.

Anavet Practice

Anavets of the Senior Men's Fastball League will hold a workout at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at Kingsway. All players and others wishing to try out are urged to attend. In the event of inclement weather a meeting will be held in the club rooms at 7:30 for the purpose of issuing uniforms, jackets, etc.

Legion Workout

Norwood Legion 118 of the Senior Men's Fastball League will hold a workout Friday night at Queen's Avenue school grounds. Coach Jerry Koldie will be in charge of the drill, which commences at 6:30.

Legion and in 1929 was jinxed by Harry Shaw in the city amateur again, this time Shaw winning on the 37th. However, he was medalist with a 71. In 1925 he took the city open with 114, leading Joe Pryke and Henry Martell by a single stroke.

Jim turned pro in 1926 with the Country Club and the same year won the Alberta professional title. He and Doug Kilburn were a lower of strength in the Eaton Challenge Cup matches and in 1937 defended the cup 12 times.

FORMER PGA CHAMPION Vic Ghezzi finds his ball teed up perfectly on a rock during Goodall Round-Robin tournament at the Wykeval Country Club course, New Rochelle, N.Y.

To Show Sports Film Thursday

A sports film containing soccer, volleyball, football, swimming and water sports, will be shown at the USO Hall Thursday at 8:30 p.m. The public is invited and there will be no admission charge.

The film is being shown by the Extension Department of the University of Alberta, in co-operation with the Recreation Commission.

... From the Dugout

Jack McGill, Esk left fielder, didn't last long. Fourth hitter in the top half of the first inning McGill was called out on strikes to retire the side. He protested vigorously and was promptly 'thumbed' by Umpire Fred Lupul.

At that the penalty was on the severe side. For one thing McGill chose his language with an eye to the recent presidential blast that the rough talk must be a thing of the past in Big Four circles. . . . However, the Minn.-Blue made stick and off went the Esk gardener for an early shower.

Tony Chulka had a great night what with three hits in five trips, eight chances without a boot and a pair of stolen bases to his credit. . . . Johnston, of course, was the big hero. . . . He first came off the bench in a pinch-hitting role in the ninth inning to clip Doug Darrah for a single. . . . Then his 11th frame sock made it a perfect night at the plate.

Frank Gonzales, in spite of a charley horse in his left leg, is playing great ball. . . . He shapes up as far more deely with the bat this season than a year ago and his fielding is also on the upgrade. . . . You can tag Cubs' Roy Caneapa as having one of the better throwing arms in the circuit.

Both Hawkey and Seaman were a little "short" in their understandable considering the limited training period and doubly so in Hawkey's case when it's remembered that he pitched but rarely in the 1942 season. . . . At that he showed Eks a curveball that cracked, especially in the early going.

Umpire Fred Lupul was in hot water most of the way. . . . Eks' manager, Morris was in his hair frequently, possibly with the McGill incident in mind. . . . The Mill Train in a fair way to becoming the Hugh Casey of the League. . . . Last.

Sharp-Shooters Blast Out 66's PGA Tourney

ST. LOUIS, May 20.—(AP)—Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., and Bob Hamilton of Landover, Mo., clipped out a pair of 66's Wednesday to lead the way in the first 18-hole qualifying round of the 30th Professional Golfers' Association championship.

By virtue of brilliant short iron play and putting, Hogan and Hamilton slashed five strokes off par 71 for the 6,477-yard course at the Norwood Hills Country Club. Herman Keiser of Akron, O., winner of the Augusta Masters tournament a year ago, and Gene Sarazen, who won the first of his three PGA titles back in 1922, had 67's for the opening round.

Altabaskan Sails

night marked his third appearance as a fireman role in the four games Eks have played. . . . Cubs play Eks on Monday, May 24, and Tuesday for once will be an open date.

DISTRICT NEWS IN BRIEF

Anglican Rector Takes North Post

Rev. J. C. Bell of Wetaskiwin Is Leaving for Fort Simpson

WETASKIWIN, May 20.—Rev. J. C. Bell, Rector of Immanuel Anglican Church, informed his congregation on Sunday that he will be leaving for Fort Simpson, Yukon Territory, on June 18.

A call for ministers came from the Archbishop of Rupert's Land in answer to which Rev. Bell volunteered and will have charge of St. David's church, which has been without a minister for the past five years. The congregation, which consists mostly of St. Louis Indians, has been visited by the Anglican rector from Fort McMurray, a distance of 300 miles, which he covered by plane.

The original church which was founded in 1860 has since been replaced by a new building. At Fort Simpson there is a Hudson Bay Co. base, a signal station, a Roman Catholic hospital and a two-man RCMP detachment. Food is brought into the town once a year.

Rev. Bell has occupied the pulpit at Immanuel Church for the past two years, coming from Mannville, Alberta where he was rector for five years. Mrs. Bell and five children will leave with Rev. Bell for their new home.

During their stay in Wetaskiwin, Mr. and Mrs. Bell have made many friends who deeply regret the departure. Young people of the congregation have been an especial interest of Rev. Bell. He was also chaplain of the Sea Cadets.

Red Shield Drive Stars At Ponoka

PONOKA, May 20.—Major W. Kilson, of the Salvation Army, was host to a number of Ponoka citizens in the new Legion hall on Friday.

After introductory remarks by Major D. Sweet, Major Kilson gave a stirring address on "Religion in Action." Work of Salvation Army both in Canada and in other lands was vividly portrayed in an asking support for Ponoka's participation in the "Red Shield" campaign.

Following subsequent discussion, L. Auten was elected chairman of the committee to be placed at the disposal of a "Rural Service Unit" for charitable purposes. Mrs. A. Low was elected president of this unit, with Mrs. L. Auten associate president and M. E. Graulund, secretary-treasurer.

Community Hall Officially Opens

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, May 20.—The new community hall and lodge room of the Odd-fellows was officially opened with a big dance last night and in spite of bad roads, there was a good crowd. This new $15,000 hall was started last summer by the lodge and is now almost completed. There is a big hall with a stage on the ground floor, a small committee room, lodge room and kitchen in the basement.

A fire in January, 1947, burned the old Oddfellows Hall and as the town needed a community hall, the lodge members decided to combine their lodge rooms with a hall. Shares were sold among the members to raise the money and much lumber and labor was donated.

He served on Bowtell School Board and was reeve of Vermilion Valley municipal council for several terms. He also was a member of the Vermilion hospital board for 27 years and served several terms as chairman. He retired from the board last February. At the time of his death he was president of Vermilion Agricultural Society and of the Vermilion Old Timers Association.

He was an active Liberal in politics and took an active part in all community activities. Funeral is from the First United Church, Vermilion at 2 p.m. Friday. His wife and daughter Evelyn survive.

Broad Program For Engineers

Many Alberta development problems will be discussed at the annual convention of the Engineering Institute of Canada, to be held June 1 to June 5 at the Banff Springs hotel.

Convention will discuss oil and gas resources, rural electrification, irrigation and water resources.

About 50 Edmontonians are expected to attend the meet.

Total of 500 EIC members from Canada and the U.S. will attend.

Purpose of the convention this year will be to discuss problems relating to the development of the western provinces.

Alberta problems will occupy a great part of the discussion.

Among Edmonton speakers at the convention will be Benjamin Russell, provincial director of water resources.

He will address the EIC delegates on the subject "Water resources in Alberta and their present and ultimate uses."

Chairman of the Edmonton branch of the Institute is H. W. Tye.

Keith Camming is secretary-treasurer of the Edmonton branch.

Council, at a recent meeting, approved in principle the installation of parking meters, and instructed the commissioners to report to the city council on the type of meter to be installed, locations and other details.

Approximately 1,100 of the meters will be installed in the downtown section of the city on the north side of the river, and 80 on Whyte avenue.

LOCATIONS CHOSEN
Locations at which meters will be installed are: 99 street to 104 street; 101A street from 99 street to 101 street; 102 street from 99 street to 102 street; 100 and 100A streets from Jasper avenue to 102 street; 101 street from 100 street to 103 street; 102 street from 100 street to 103 street; 103 and 104 streets from Jasper avenue to 102 street.

The meters will be installed on Whyte avenue between 103 and 105 streets.

Meters will be installed on both sides of streets and avenues in the installation area.

Cost of the installation of the meters will be borne by the company supplying the machines.

Under the terms of the installation contract the company undertakes to take out the meters at its own request by the civic authorities.

The meters will be installed for a 12-month trial period but are subject to removal at anytime within that period if requested.

The installing company will retain 75 per cent of the meter fees until the cost of machines and installation has been recovered after which the entire revenue will be retained by the city.

JAILERS JAILED: THIEVES LAUDED
NANKING, May 20.—(AP)—Two thieves serving prison terms complained yesterday in court that their jailers were not getting a good example for honesty.

They charged the jailers with building private homes with prison labor and government funds.

The court sent the jailers to jail and praised the two thieves for their honesty.

YOUTH'S BODY IS DISCOVERED ON LAKE SHORE

A body of a youth, missing since May 9, was found on the shore of Lesser Slave Lake, Tuesday, RCMP officials stated today.

He was Roy Anderson, 17, of Grouard, Alberta.

Still missing is Sam Glat, 33, from Grouard, who is believed to have accompanied Anderson on a boat trip across Lesser Slave Lake on May 9.

The two were thought to have left Grouard in their boat for Big Prairie on the other side of the lake.

A leather jacket belonging to Anderson was found on the lakeshore May 16, RCMP officials said.

Anderson's body was found scumpled on the lakeshore Tuesday, with the upturned boat beside him.

Bourcier Nominated

A. V. Bourcier, head of the Douglas Social Credit Council for Alberta, was named as a candidate for the Lac 8th, Anne constituency in the next provincial election by the "enthusiastic" convention at Mayerthorpe on Monday.

Mr. Bourcier has been Social Credit member for Lac 8th, Anne since 1935. He was elected during the Social Credit "landslide" of that year.

The Douglas Social Credit Council which Mr. Bourcier heads was formed this spring and announced was made of its functions during the 1948 session of the Alberta legislature.

It followed a cabinet split in which R. Earl Ansley was ousted from the portfolio of education and D. Hynde, deputy minister of economic affairs released from the government service.

Mr. Bourcier's previous appointment as chairman of the Alberta government's Social Credit Board, dated March 31, last year, was followed by sharp disapproval of the annual report of the board tabled in the legislature in 1947, which had expressed doubt of the value of the secret ballot, majority rule and the political party system.

Members of the Alberta Social Credit League in Edmonton were not informed of the Mayerthorpe convention it was learned, but a report from Mayerthorpe quotes Mr. Bourcier as saying he would support the Manning government.

Shopbreaking Attempt Lands Two in Prison

Prison terms were given two men Wednesday on attempted shopbreaking charges.

Irving J. Beauséau, 19417 151 street, was given one month hard labor while his accomplice Harry James Rennie, no fixed address, was sentenced to three months with hard labor.

The pair was arrested Wednesday morning.

At 12:40 a.m. Constables A. T. Ward and J. Peck responded to a call that two men were attempting to enter Wyman and Co. 10529 105 avenue.

On arrival Constable Ward spotted two men and gave chase. He caught Rennie but Beauséau escaped.

Rennie gave police a description of Beauséau which was broadcast to all cars.

He few minutes later Constables J. Toner and Donald "Doc" McNaughton found Beauséau waiting at last office at 108 street and Jasper.

TWO WINDOWS BROKEN
Investigations revealed that two windows were broken in the Wyman and Co. building.

A pry was also found near one window.

Both pleaded guilty to the charges in city court.

In his plea for leniency for Rennie, W. G. K. Bloor, defence counsel, said "he'd never make a good crook anyway."

Calgary Rider Thrown But Escapes Injury

Sparkling jumping performances featured the opening program of the four day light horse show at the arena Wednesday with Calgary's Brandon Man, competitors taking the major awards in these events.

More than 1,500 witnessed the thrilling events, and gasped with horror when Ronnie Pennington, Calgary, was thrown by the Kelvin Grove Farms' Casey Jones and got tangled in the reins. It looked as if the rider would be dragged by his mount, but he managed to free himself before receiving injury.

The Kinsmen Club challenge trophy first night jump-off thrilled the audience as 10 horses posted perfect first rounds, and six turned in faultless efforts in the second round of jumping.

Ardelno and The Ghost, owned and ridden by Miss Doris Littlewood, Calgary, tied for first place with a faultless display over 15 jumps.

Third place in the event went to Gay Lad, owned by H. L. Phillips, Calgary, and ridden by Miss Audrey Gardner. This horse cleared 16 jumps before being counted out.

Three horses were tied for fourth place with a clean record over 14 jumps.

The five horses entered from the Victor Sifton Winnipeg stable were very much in the forefront of the going out of the competition after two jumps, two failing on the fourth, and one clearing only four jumps.

Misty Morn, from this stable, won the championship at the Calgary show.

BRANDON WINNER
The Pixley Challenge Cup was taken by Paddy Bloy from the Lalla Gord Stables, Brandon, Man., with Gordon Williamson, owner of the stable, in the saddle.

Tam O'Shanter from the Gardner Stables, Pincher Creek, placed second, and Miss Doris Littlewood's Sundance third.

The cup was presented to the winner by G. A. McDonald, chairman of the Exhibition Association's Light Horse committee.

Kelvin Grove Farms Ltd., Calgary, took first place in the novice hunter class with Colonel 1935, ridden by Miss Audrey Gardner. Second place went to the Falkland Ranch event, Falkland, B.C., ridden by Mrs. Lillian Williamson.

Third prize to Print the News, owned by Tom Ward, Red Deer, and ridden by Miss Audrey Gardner.

Dr. G. Watson, Toronto, who judged the show last year, presented the challenge trophy in this class to Mrs. Clifton Cross, owner of the Kelvin Grove Farms.

STRONG POSITION
Edmonton exhibitors turned back strong opposition in the three-day road race class with Dr. W. S. Armstrong taking the premier award with Beverly Pauline ridden by Mrs. Kellogg.

Dr. W. S. Armstrong, placed second, and Tom Ward's Print the News, ridden by Mrs. K. Gove, third.

Thirteen-year-old Tovah Cristall owned by Max Cristall's McDonald's Goldflake in veteran style to take first place in the novice saddle class.

Second place went to the Falkland Ranch's Hi-Jacker ridden by Tommy Wilmut, owner of the ranch, Anthony Adverse, owned by W. F. Martin, Edmonton, placed third.

First heat in the musical chairs event went to Doug Legg, Edmonton, with Garnet Ferguson placing second and Gifford Norris, third.

Judging will continue Thursday, and a spectacular program of jumping and dressage scheduled for the evening session in the arena which starts at 7:45 p.m.

Tentative Program For New Canadians

An outline of a tentative education program for new Canadians was given by Mayor W. E. Frame, provincial superintendent of schools, at a meeting of the Council for Canadian Unity Wednesday night.

The program, under the guidance of the Canadian Education Association, would provide immigrants with instruction in basic English and related subjects, the speaker said.

Drafts of the program have been referred to provincial departments of education across Canada, he said.

Major Frame also described the steps an immigrant passes through in obtaining Canadian citizenship.

President of the Council, Mrs. R. H. Rowan presided at the meeting.

Forty Years of Service To Community Recognized

"Mr. Edmonton" received signal honors Wednesday night.

"Mr. Edmonton" has been a leading engineer, an art lover, has laid out city golf courses, is a member of the Alberta Rhodes scholarship selection committee, has led the Edmonton Community Chest, has made an outstanding and diversified contribution to Edmonton and to Canada.

"Mr. Edmonton," as he has been fondly called, is Julian Garrett, city resident for 40 years.

Honoring his many achievements which have benefited Edmonton so much, the Junior Chamber of Commerce presented Mr. Garrett last night with its prized Citizenship Award for outstanding voluntary service and leadership in Edmonton.

Kenneth A. McKenzie, chairman of the Citizenship Award committee of the JCC, presented the award to Mr. Garrett Wednesday night at a dinner meeting in the Macdonald hotel.

OUTSTANDING CITIZENSHIP
Said Mr. McKenzie, prior to a review of Mr. Garrett's activities: "This award is given as a tangible expression of our appreciation for citizenship, and in an effort to focus the spotlight of public recognition on one of those whose time and effort has been freely and unselfishly given for the public good."

Born at Hyde Park, near Boston, Mass., Mr. Garrett attended Harvard University and was a friend and classmate of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Between 1905 and 1910 Mr. Garrett was employed as civil engineer on three different railroads in Midwest U.S. and Western Canada.

From 1911 to 1923, he was partner in an Edmonton real estate, loan, and insurance business.

Since those years, Mr. Garrett has been general manager of North-western Utilities Ltd., director of several companies, and has held major executive positions in various associations and institutes.

On the cultural side, Mr. Garrett (whose name "Julian" was given him by his artist-father after the Academy Julian in France) is now in his second term as president of the council of the Edmonton Museum of Arts.

Mr. Garrett has been member of the board of directors of the Edmonton Community Chest since its organization in 1941.

He has been called by associates "Mr. Community Chest" so great has been his support of the Chest.

On the sporting side, Mr. Garrett has been an ardent golfer for 32

SHOPPING GUIDE

Week-End Prospects
For Shopping Improve

By Bea Thrifty

Weatherman gave the high sign and things are happening.

Gardens are planted—and what's of vital interest to happy homemakers—this week-end will see the fresh vegetable markets loaded with crisp greens, colorful new vegetables of all kinds.

Tomatoes may slip down to the moderate income bracket and sell at 45c to 50c a pound. Head lettuce will still be at 45c a head—but bunches of new beets, turnips, cauliflower, cabbage, radishes, parsley, green onions in all kinds of goodies—will be selling at more reasonable prices.

No hope of celery until at least the end of June; the same with field tomatoes, strawberries and raspberries.

For those of you who love Texas pink grapefruit—and there are many who do—a word of caution. Juicy pinkies sing their Swan Song for another year. You won't be able to enjoy this king of the breakfast fruits for a long, long time—next winter as a matter of fact.

More vegetable jargon concerns that nasty old job of cleaning and peeling these same vegetables.

A little item that makes the whole business a lot easier is a small spray to attach to your kitchen faucet.

It costs 25c, is constructed with a rubber base and can be fitted on any size tap.

News for those who live alone—whether they like it or not—is the one-cup coffee percolator. It's made of aluminum and costs 75c.

Sweet tinkling tunes come from a pretty-as-a-picture cigarette box. Its turquoise blue metal—at least the one I saw—was—and it was marked 9125c.

Crisp, checked-gingham ruffles and curtains always dress up a drab kitchen. Housewives spend 85 percent of their time in this room—and appreciate a little "fancying up."

New note is checked red, green or blue, plastic ruffling, in two widths, selling at 25c and 35c a yard.

While we're waiting for the real honest-to-goodness fresh strawberries—we'll have to content ourselves with the fresh-frozen kind... and it's not really too hard... they're good too.

And while in the strawberry mood—delicious concoction is a mixture of sweetened berries with creamy minute tapioca pudding.

Pile in alternate layers in a sherbet glass and the effect is tops in flavor and tops in attractive coloring.

Hardwood floors are a beautiful sight to see—but they are a nuisance to keep shining like the morning sun.

This plastic coating for floors seems to be a fairly good way of protecting the floors and giving them a shining coat at the same time. Ask your paint man for more info on this.

WHY GROW OLD

Exercises Given For
Figure Development

By Josephine Lowman

There either must be more flat busted women or more women who are conscious of this figure fault than there used to be.

I received so many requests for help that I almost feel as though I should run a weekly bust development column. Perhaps the sweater girl era caused this!

Anyway, I am giving two days this week to the correction of this difficulty. It is impossible to increase the size of the bust itself through exercise. However, the preteral muscles of the chest and the general musculature can be developed so that the bustline is larger. I have had many pupils who added two or three inches to this measurement with daily exercise.

Posture also plays an important part in the way your bustline looks. If your bust is sunk into your ribs because of slumping carriage, naturally, you will not possess the contour you long for. And while in the slumped position, the simple act of pulling the tummy in and straightening the back lifts the bust.

This is today's exercise for increasing this measurement: Stand tall. Bend your elbows and raise your arms forward, elbows just a little lower than your shoulders. Spread your fingers and place the fingers of your left hand against the fingers of your right hand. With your arms and hands in this position, press your fingers together hard. Hold for a few seconds. Relax. Repeat.

Any exercises to increase bust measurement must be done faithfully, many times each day. Begin by doing this exercise 15 times daily. Gradually increase until you are doing it 50 times in the morning and 50 times at night.

Some people believe that gentle massage is an aid to this. If you wish to have my routine for bust development, press your fingers together hard. Hold for a few seconds. Relax. Repeat.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Bathing Active Baby
Tests Mother's Agility

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

There is no question but that bathing the active year old, or older, baby is a test of maternal agility. In one second the child can be flat on his face in the tub, from whence he will have to be scooped up in nothing flat.

If the water is soft, just a little soap makes it so slippery that the baby slides hither and yon, and the mother is so busy hanging onto him that the bathing itself gets done sketchily.

If he likes to slap the water and stand up in the tub, the effort to hold onto him is monumental.

Mrs. V. P. has an ingenious remedy for this. She writes, "I use an ordinary white, cotton glove on my left hand while bathing the baby. Then he can be held easily and you know how hard it is to hold a baby covered with soap."

I can't wait to try it with a white glove. I never did get one of my granddaughter's hands in the water, the day I wrestled with her. She outwitted me every time I tried to dunk it.

Mrs. C. L. T. is sure that one of the reasons children cry out at night is because they need to go to the toilet, but aren't awake enough to know when. "When my baby cries at night," she writes, "I go right in and pick her up from the bed, blanket and all, and take her to the bathroom. I offer her a drink of water and this usually wakes her up. Finding Mother or Daddy right there with her, soothes her, and she goes right to sleep when put back in bed again."

"We also keep on the night light, so she can see objects and is not frightened by them and hope this helps some other mother with a night-crying baby."

I think your explanation is a real one.

SAFEWAY MEATS are trimmed before weighing —SO YOU SAVE MONEY!

When you compare meat prices, it is important to compare trimming, too. Safeway meats are trimmed free of excess bone, fat and waste... you pay only for good eating meat. For example, note in the drawing at the right how Safeway rib lamb chops are trimmed waste-free. And... we start with quality meats. We buy only top government grades of beef—top grades of lamb, pork and veal. Meats so good that we guarantee they'll please you.

For example: RIB LAMB CHOPS

BRIDGE

Don't Miscalculate Sacrifice Bidding

By William E. McKenney

Although rubber bridge and tournament bridge use practically the same rules and the same scoring except for game, they are really two different games. In rubber bridge you must play for the maximum number of tricks.

Sacrifice bidding plays an important part in tournament bridge. In rubber bridge, your vulnerability doesn't have but four hearts and you feel sure they can make it.

Opening—A 2

You know that they will score 120 points the tricks plus 500 points for a slam bonus. If you can take a 500-point sacrifice, it is a wise sacrifice in tournament bridge and will win a lot of match points for you. However, it might be too dangerous in rubber bridge.

In the play is the same in both rubber and duplicate bridge.

German Soldiers Fight For Arabs

BERLIN, May 20.—(Reuters)—Many German soldiers, remnants of Rummel's Afrika Korps, are fighting in Palestine in the ranks of the Arab armies, the national Zeitung, Soviet-licensed Berlin newspaper alleged yesterday.

Montreal Doctor To Head Campaign

TORONTO, May 20.—(C.P.P.)—Dr. Harold Warwick, 33, of Montreal, will lead an intensified cancer campaign as the newly appointed joint executive director of Canada's two major cancer prevention organizations, the Canadian Cancer Society and the National Cancer Institute of Canada, it was announced yesterday.

You may not like the bidding on today's hand, but that was the way it occurred. Declarer won the opening spade lead with the king and led a diamond, which East won with the ace.

Then he cashed the queen and jack of spades. East knew that declarer's diamond suit was set up, and he could see that South had to have the ace of clubs to justify his bidding.

Therefore, his only hope of defeating the contract was to find West with the queen of hearts, so at this point he made what might be termed a good defensive play in rubber bridge, and a daring play in tournament bridge. He led the ace of hearts.

Declarer attempted to offset the play by refusing to win with dummy's ace, but East continued with a heart. West played the queen and declarer had to win. This line of hearts became an entry to the West hand and all declarer could do was to cash eight tricks.

BUS HITCH-HIKER GETS HIS 'CHANGE'

NEWARK, N.J., May 20.—(AP)—A bus driver had been plagued for some time by a passenger who regularly produced a $20 bill on the morning run and explained that was all he had. The driver usually lacked sufficient change and gave the passenger a free five-cent ride.

The other morning the driver was prepared. As soon as the passenger produced the $20 bill, the driver handed the man a sack filled with 399 nickels in change.

He hasn't seen the passenger since.

British Farmers Hit First Target

LONDON, May 20.—(CP)—British farmers have hit the first target in their five-year plan to guarantee more home-grown wheat and potatoes in 1948. The ministry of agriculture says reports from England and Wales show that 2,340,250 acres of wheat have been sown, an increase of 265,000 over last year. More than 73,000 additional acres have been found for potatoes, bringing the total to 1,914,940.

Agencies Allowed To Sell Mutation Mink In Dominion

CALGARY, May 20.—(CP)—Authorized selling agencies in Canada will be allowed to sell mutation mink subject to rules and regulations of the Joint Canadian American marketing board.

A resolution approving this step was passed by delegates attending the annual meeting of the Canadian Mutation Mink Breeders' Association here. Delegates also approved a resolution calling for a portion of the mutation mink market to be offered for sale in Canada.

Last year the pelts were sold directly in the United States.
